

Purple Hop Bush

The Purple Hop Bush is an evergreen, fast-growing shrub with vibrant purple, leathery leaves. During the Summer months, small clusters of red-purple seeds adorn the plant, attracting a range of birds. Enjoying a full-sun to part-shade position, the Purple Hop Bush is hardy and tolerant of drought, and is easily pruned into a pleasing shape.

|   |                             |
|---|-----------------------------|
|  Botanic name   | Dodonaea viscosa 'Purpurea' |
|  Origin         | New Zealand                 |
|  Typical height | 4-5m                        |
|  Typical width  | 3m                          |
|  Foliage Type   | Evergreen                   |
|  Leaf           | Dark purple                 |
|  Bark           | Woody                       |
|  Flowers        | Red-yellow and bell-shaped  |
|  Fruit Pod      | Purple capsule              |

