

Corymbia Summer Red

The Corymbia Summer Red is grown for its bright and abundant flower displays which bloom from Spring to Summer and attract native bees and birds. Enjoying well drained soils and an open sunny position the Corymbia Red Summer with its small stature makes for a great choice for powerline locations.

 Botanic name	Corymbia ficifolia 'Summer Red'
 Origin	Western Australia
 Typical height	5m
 Typical width	3m
 Foliage Type	Evergreen
 Leaf	Bright green and pointed, oval-like shape
 Bark	Fibrous or flaky
 Flowers	Red and fluffy
 Fruit Pod	Brown capsule

