INSTRUMENT OF DELEGATION TO THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

On Tuesday, 11 April 2023, the City of Parramatta Council ("Council") resolved that Council revoke from 23 April 2023, all previous delegations granted to the Acting Chief Executive Officer, Bryan Hynes.

Pursuant to section 377 of the Local Government Act 1993, Council delegates to Gail Connolly from 24 April 2023, the functions of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") to exercise Council's powers, functions, duties and authorities contained in legislation and the functions as specified in:

1. the Local Government Act 1993, the Local Government (General) Regulation 2021 and any other relevant or related subordinate legislation; and
2. any other legislation, regulations or other subordinate legislation under which Council has powers, authorities, duties or functions.

The delegations are subject to the following:

1. any limitations or restraints under the provisions of the Local Government Act 1993 and any other legislation, regulations or other subordinate legislation relevant to this delegation;
2. any direction, limitations or restraints under any resolution made by Council relating to the exercise of any delegated power, function, duty or authority;
3. the CEO must exercise the delegated powers, functions, duties and authorities in accordance with and subject to:
 - i. the provisions of the Local Government Act 1993 the Local Government (General) Regulation 2021 and any other relevant or related subordinate legislation; and
 - ii. all and every policy adopted by resolution of the Council and current at the time of the exercise of the delegated powers, functions, duties and authorities.

The delegation permits the CEO to accept tenders to a maximum value of $500,000 (incl GST) per tender. This is reflected by delegation code 4.2.3 in the Administrative Delegations Manual.

The delegation also permit the following road and traffic functions:

- Line-marking (lane lines, separation lines, edge lines, barrier lines, etc);
- Parking restrictions (excluding preferential and residential parking schemes);
- Advisory sign posting; Works zones;
- Taxi zones / bus zones (subject to consultation with relevant associations and bodies and Transport for NSW);
- Angled and disabled parking;
- Light traffic thoroughfares;
- Regulatory signs (other than turn restrictions and one-way restrictions);

- Marked foot crossings and children crossings (other than raised crossings or where road narrowing is involved);
- Temporary road closures / on-the-spot road closures for annual events (as per RMS requirements and subject to Police approval).

This delegation is reflected by delegation code 3.10.1 in the Administrative Delegations Manual.

This also permits the functions and powers of Transport for NSW (TfNSW) to regulate traffic on a public road for purposes other than those set out in section 115(3), being the following types of pedestrian works:

- Works to enable alfresco dining on a road (where there is no change to the number of continuous travel lanes)
- Continuous footpaths
- Converting existing pedestrian (zebra) crossings to raised pedestrian ('wombat') crossings
- Mid-block treatments to manage vehicle speed including road humps, road cushions, chicanes and slow points
- Pedestrian crossings
- Pedestrian refuges
- No Stopping controls at intersections
- Kerb buildouts to reduce intersection crossing distance or manage vehicle speed (where there is no change to the number of continuous travel lanes)
- Kerb modifications for footpath improvements or tree planting (where there is no change to the number of continuous travel lanes)
- Associated changes to kerbside parking necessary to implement the proposal and to offset any parking impacts.

1. General Instructions

This document details all legislative delegations that can be undertaken by Council employees occupying the roles in Table 1.

It covers all legislative delegations arising from legislation or third party delegations given to Council by another agency. The legislative delegations contained within this manual are sourced from the LG Legal database, which provides specific delegable functions arising from legislation.

The employee must exercise the relevant legislative delegation in this Instrument subject to and in accordance with the limits and conditions in the tables in the Administrative Delegations Manual.

Delegations are hierarchical, as follows:

All delegations must be undertaken pursuant to assigned financial limits within adopted budgets and in accordance with Council's policies, procedures and guidelines. Delegates who exceed the scope of their delegations may have their delegations withdrawn by the CEO without notice, in addition to any other disciplinary action.

The delegations may be varied or withdrawn at any time.

All delegations must be exercised, where appropriate, in accordance with the relevant legislation, the Council's Code of Conduct and other adopted Council policies, procedures and instructions.

There are four key principles to be followed by employees when considering their

Employees are expected to exercise good judgement and careful consideration

Employees acknowledge and understand their obligations of the delegations assigned to them

Delegations are not a substitute for effective management, reporting and information-sharing

Delegations should be exercised in accordance with employees' roles and responsibilities
